DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 1 and 4 are objected to because of the following informalities:

in claim 1, line 2, substitute "the" with --a--;

in claim 1, line 3, delete "the";

in claim 1, line 4, substitute "the" with --a--;

in claim 1, line 5, substitute "that" with --the--;

in claim 1, line 7, substitute the first occurrence of "the" with --a--;

in claim 4, line 2, substitute "the" with --a--;

in claim 4, line 3, delete "the";

in claim 4, line 4, substitute "the" with --a--; and

in claim 7, line 7, delete "the".

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hardesty et al. (US 5,504,315).

Hardesty teaches a method of verifying barcode data, comprising the steps of:

detecting the presence of barcode data in a digital file (col. 7, lines 21-24);

obtaining measurements of the bars and spaces of said barcode data (col. 8, lines 60-67);

identifying the type of barcode data present in said file (col. 9, lines 50-54);

decoding said barcode data using a predetermined algorithm used for that type of barcode data (col. 9, lines 54-63);

verifying said barcode data using the result of the decoding step, and outputting the results of the verification (col. 9, lines 47-50);

the method further comprising creating and storing meta data relating to said barcode data; and the method further comprising retrieving, receiving and storing aspects of the barcode data as well as related data into a database (col. 8, lines 14-19).

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Lubow et al. (US 5,835,615) teach a bar code printability gauge.

Schuessler et al. (US 6,726,104) teaches scaling techniques for printing bar code symbols.
